RICHARD W. WIEKING
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

IN RE: Master File No. MDL-1347

WORLD WAR II ERA JAPANESE
FORCED LABOR LITIGATION,

This Document Relates To:

All Cases

ORDER NO. 1

(Consolidating Cases and Setting Initial Conference)

The cases listed on Attachment A are before the undersigned for coordinated pretrial proceedings pursuant to a transfer order by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation, 28 USC § 1407.

1. Pretrial Consolidation. The cases listed on Attachment A are, until further order, consolidated for pretrial purposes. This order does not constitute a determination that these actions should be consolidated for trial, nor does it have the effect of making any entity a party to an action in which it has not been joined and served in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(a) Master Docket and File. The clerk will maintain a master docket and case file under the style "IN RE WORLD WAR II ERA JAPANESE FORCED LABOR LITIGATION," master file number MDL-1347. All orders, pleadings, motions and other documents will, when filed and docketed in the master case file, be deemed filed and docketed in each individual case to the extent applicable.

(b) Captions; Separate Filing. Orders, pleadings, motions and other documents will bear a caption similar to that of this Order. If generally applicable to all consolidated actions, they shall include in their caption the notation that they relate to "All Cases" and be filed and docketed only in the master file. Documents intended to apply only to particular cases will indicate in their caption the case number of the case(s) to which they apply, and extra copies shall be provided to the clerk to facilitate filing and docketing both in the master case file and the specified individual case files.

(c) Discovery Requests and Responses. Pursuant to FRCP 5(d), discovery requests and responses will not be filed with the court except when specifically ordered by the court or to the extent offered in connection with a motion.

21 2. Initial Conference. All parties shall appear for a 22 conference with the undersigned on Wednesday, July 19, 2000, at 23 10:30 a.m.

24 (a) Attendance. To minimize costs and facilitate a 25 manageable conference, parties are not required to attend the 26 conference, and parties with similar interests are expected to 27 agree to the extent practicable on a single attorney to act on

1 their joint behalf at the conference. A party will not, by 2 designating an attorney to represent its interests at the 3 conference, be precluded from other representation during the 4 litigation; and attendance at the conference will not waive
5 objections to jurisdiction, venue or service.

6 (b) Service List. This order is being mailed to all 7 persons shown on Attachment B, which has been prepared from the 8 list of counsel making appearances with the Judicial Panel on 9 Multidistrict Litigation. Counsel on this list are requested to 10 forward a copy of the order to other attorneys who should be 11 notified of the conference. A corrected service list will be 12 prepared after the conference.

13 (c) Other Participants. Persons who are not named 14 as parties in this litigation but may later be joined as parties or 15 are parties in related litigation pending in other federal and 16 state courts are invited to attend in person or by counsel.

17 (3) Purposes; Agenda. The conference will be held for 18 the purposes specified in FRCP 16(a), 16(b), 16(c) and 26(f), and 19 subject to the sanctions prescribed in Rule 16(f). The items 20 listed in Manual for Complex Litigation, Third, sections 21.21 and 21 40.1 shall, to the extent applicable, constitute a tentative 22 agenda. Counsel are encouraged to advise the court as soon as 23 possible of any items that should be added to the agenda.

24 (4) Preparations for Conference.

25 (a) Procedures for Complex Litigation. Counsel are 26 expected to familiarize themselves with the Manual for Complex
27 Litigation, Third, and be prepared at the conference to suggest

1 procedures that will facilitate the just, speedy and inexpensive
2 resolution of this litigation.

3 (b) Initial Conference of Counsel. Before the 4 conference, counsel shall confer and seek consensus to the extent
5 possible with respect to items on the agenda, including a proposed 6 discovery plan under Rule 26(f) and a suggested schedule under Rule
7 16(b) for joinder of parties, amendment of pleadings, consideration 8 of any class action allegations, motions and trial.

9 (c) Preliminary Reports. Counsel will submit to 10 the court by July 18, 2000, no later than 10:00 a.m., a brief
11 written statement indicating their preliminary understanding of the 12 facts involved in the litigation and the critical factual and legal 13 issues. These statements will not be filed with the clerk, will 14 not be binding, will not waive claims or defenses and may not be 15 offered in evidence against a party in later proceedings.

16 (d) List of Affiliated Companies and Counsel. To 17 assist the court in identifying any problems of recusal or 18 disqualification, counsel's statement will list all companies 19 affiliated with the parties and all counsel associated in the 20 litigation.

21 (e) List of Pending Motions. Counsel's statement
22 shall list all pending motions.

23 (f) List of Related Cases. Counsel's statement
24 shall list all related cases pending in state or federal court and 25 their current status, to the extent known.

26 (4) Interim Measures. Until otherwise ordered by the 27 court:

1 (a) Admission of Counsel. Attorneys admitted to 2 practice and in good standing in any United States District Court
3 are admitted pro hac vice in this litigation. Association of local 4 cocounsel is not required.

5 (b) Pleadings. Each defendant is granted an 6 extension of time for responding by motion or answer to the 7 complaint(s) until a date to be set at the conference.

8 (c) Pending and New Discovery. Pending the 9 conference, all outstanding disclosure and discovery proceedings
10 are stayed and no further discovery shall be initiated. This order 11 does not (1) preclude voluntary informal discovery regarding the 12 identification of relevant documents and witnesses; (2) preclude 13 parties from stipulating to the conduct of a deposition that has 14 already been scheduled; (3) prevent a party from voluntarily making 15 disclosure, responding to an outstanding discovery request under 16 Rule 33, 34 or 36 or (4) authorize a party to suspend its efforts
17 in gathering information needed to respond to a request under Rule
18 33, 34 or 36. Relief from this stay may be granted for good cause 19 shown, such as the ill health of a proposed deponent.

20 (d) Preservation of Records. Each party shall 21 preserve all documents and other records containing information
22 potentially relevant to the subject matter of this litigation.
23 Each party shall also preserve any physical evidence or potential 24 evidence and shall not conduct any testing that alters the physical 25 evidence without notifying opposing counsel and, unless counsel 26 stipulate to the test, without obtaining the court's permission to 27 conduct the test. Subject to further order of the court, parties

1 may continue routine erasures of computerized data pursuant to 2 existing programs, but they shall (1) immediately notify opposing 3 counsel about such programs and (2) preserve any printouts of such 4 data. Requests for relief from this directive will receive prompt 5 attention from the court.

6 5. Later Filed Cases. This order shall also apply to 7 related cases later filed in, removed to or transferred to this 8 court.

9 6. Local Rules; Standing Orders. Unless otherwise
10 specified in this or subsequent orders, in addition to the Federal 11 Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules of this district and 12 Standing Orders of this court shall govern this litigation.
